before us I think it would be best to let the directors have these $7 (90) worth of shares cancelled as soon as possible, and leave it to their discretion to reduce the paid up capital of the company at a later period, as they may think heat The CHAIRMAN -I understand your sugges tion is that on the $70,000 being rathroad the question of the further reduction of the capital of the company is left more or less in the hands of the directors, and that they will go into the subject as soon as it is possible to do so. I presume the investigating committee still continues, and we shall confer with them on this matter. I may also say it is our intention; to render half-yearly account if possible. When the company was started the accounts were a very long. lima in being arranged, but the books are now in far better order, and I think I can say that Cout May next we shall have the accounts from June to December this year, with a sketch of what they will be from January to the following March, to lay before you, instead of waiting another year to have a meeting. Reference was made at the last meeting regarding some $30,000 which has ilready, been written off goodwill account. I think we must bear in mind that the prospecius invited intending charcholders to inspect the statements and liabilities, and that this sum was shown as the surplus assets over liabilities. " A valuator was called in to place the various assets at their proper value, and these were so entered in closing the account. The -figures were accurate. Many of the lands and conoessions sold by the vendors to this company were obtained when the country was first opened up. and were previously either not entered among the assets or stood at a quite nominal value, and these were valued by the valuator for the purposes of stating the assets. As to the future working of the company, I think some of the suggestions of the committee will lead to placing the company on a better footing, and when carried out The adjourned annual meeting of the above I have every belief that we shall be able to show company was held on Saturday afternoon at a balance on the right side of the account.

All the papers in connection with the company were to be seen at his office and were circulated in every way, and nothing has been said till this moment on the moint alluded to by Mr. Wicking, I submit that it is hardly within the province of this meeting to go into a matter of that hind.
